JACKSON HOLE – A NEW LIFT and DOUBLE GOLDEN TICKET in 2019–20

TETON VILLAGE, WY – Between snow and visitor totals, Jackson Hole Mountain Resort’s (JHMR) 2018-19 season was one for the record books. The resort’s 715,000 skier visits mark the highest in their history. The resort consistently reported above average snow totals at all elevations. The highlight was the record-setting February snowfall of 193 inches that accumulated in Rendezvous Bowl. This was the third straight season that JHMR received more than 500 inches of snowfall with the consistent snowfall in the Tetons.

Golden Ticket Strikes Twice

With a season pass from any resort you will save 50 percent off your Jackson lift ticket from Nov. 28 to Dec. 20, 2019 and gear up for a second time from March 26 to April 12, 2020. Must be a valid season pass of 10 days or more for 2019-20 for skiing or snowboarding from any resort. There are more details on this great offer, be sure to read them at www.jacksonhole.com

Solitude Station and New Eagle’s Rest Quad

The resort is debunking the myth that “Jackson Hole is not for beginners” with a December 2018 opening of a new lodge, Solitude Station. It is a vast learning complex that is surrounded by beginner terrain, further enhanced with the addition of family-friendly Eagle’s Rest Quad Chairlift. The latest lift services JHMR’s base area allowing immediate access to Solitude Station’s beginner to advanced terrain for a fully rounded learning experience.

Experience JHMR via Mountain Collective and Ikon Pass

As part of its pass program of offerings, Jackson Hole participates in both Mountain Collective and Ikon pass products. The new Ikon Pass provides access to 41 destinations worldwide. The Ikon Pass was developed by Alterra Mountain Company. It unlocks access to a community of diverse destinations for pass holders.

Most Accessible Resort in the Rockies

This winter, fly to Jackson Hole non-stop from 12 major US cities. Non-stop routes from Chicago, Dallas, Houston, Newark, JFK, Atlanta, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Minneapolis, Seattle, Denver and Salt Lake City make Jackson Hole the most accessible Rocky Mountain destination resort. JHMR is just a short 30-minute drive from the terminal, making the JHMR experience more accessible than most comparable resorts.

Kings and Queens of Corbet’s is Back

Jackson Hole Mountain Resort (JHMR) is pleased to announce the return of the wildest on-mountain event, the Kings and Queens of Corbet’s. It calls on 25 of the world’s top freeride skiers and boarders to Corbet’s Couloir. It features airborne head-to-head runs for the title of King and Queen. It had viral success last winter and it will be one of the best spectator events of the year.

Spring in Jackson Hole and Rendezvous Festival

Spring is a lesser-known, double-secret, great time to visit Jackson Hole. March’s annual Jackson Rendezvous Festival continues in its seventh year a three-day, spring lifestyle and music festival from the streets of downtown Jackson Hole to Teton Village from March 27-29, 2020.
