MORE EXCELLENT REASONS to VISIT and SKI STEAMBOAT

STEAMBOAT SPRINGS, CO – Certainly there are bigger mountains, places where the slopes are steeper or the runs longer. However, nowhere do the various parts add up to create such an exceptional mix – one that distinctly sets Steamboat apart from the rest of the world. A mix that is rooted in a genuine friendliness and an authentic Western heritage is not often found in today's world of mega resort complexes that more closely resemble theme parks than true ski towns.

About Ski Town U.S.A.®

Steamboat was first called Ski Town in the headline of a 1947 Associated Press photo captioned, "The population of Steamboat Springs, Colorado is 1,700. The number of persons who ski is reported to be 1,685. The others are children under 1 year of age." In 1987, the Steamboat Springs Winter Sports Club registered the trademark.

About the Mountain

Located within the Park Range of the Colorado Rocky Mountains, Steamboat is comprised of six peaks: Mt. Werner, Sunshine Peak, Storm Peak, Thunderhead Peak, Christie Peak and Pioneer Ridge. The resort spans over 2,965 acres of terrain that offer a diversity of trails for all ability levels. The gladed areas of Pioneer Ridge, Sunshine and Storm Peak are Steamboat's particular claim to fame, with Champagne Powder® snow in the trees for the powder hounds.

Easy to Get to

Steamboat is 160 miles northwest of Denver, an easy three-hour drive. Take I-70 west through the Eisenhower Tunnel to Silverthorne, exit 205, then go north on Colorado Highway 9 to the town of Kremmling, then west on US 40 over Rabbit Ears Pass. Steamboat is accessible by nonstop air service from 11 major U.S. airports on Alaska, American, Delta and United Airlines, in addition to connecting service from over 300 other domestic and international cities.

San Diego Nonstop Flights - Plus!

Southern Californians can experience floating in Steamboat's legendary Champagne Powder® with winter nonstop service on Alaska Airlines from San Diego International Airport (SAN) to Steamboat/Hayden Airport (HDN). This flight route rounds out access for West Coast winter enthusiasts, with nonstop flights available up and down the coast from Seattle to southern California. Alaska Airlines will fly routes as provided on their website. Please visit Steamboat online for all the details. Log on to their homepage and a few clicks will get you the current flight info: www.steamboat.com

North America's No.1 Family Resort

SKI Magazine has recognized Steamboat as one of the Top 10 Family Ski Resorts in North America in its Top Resort Guide. For more than 15 years, the readers and editors in this industry barometer have featured Steamboat as one of the premier family destinations. The resort has earned a reputation in the industry as the leader in family programs with the original Kids Ski Free and Kids Fly Free programs, its dedicated children's center with day and evening programs, its location system Steamboat MountainWatch, and kids' specific terrain and lifts.

Kids Ski Free

Steamboat pioneered the first Kids Ski Free program in the ski industry back in 1982. Steamboat's Kids Ski Free program, valid the entire season allows children 12 years old and younger to ski free the same number of days as when their parents, grandparents, or legal guardian purchase a five-or-more-day adult lift ticket. Restrictions apply, see guidelines.

Guest Service - the Top in North America

Steamboat's employees served up some of highest net promoter scores in the industry, achieving seasonal averages of 89 Net Promoter rating, including an unprecedented eight weeks where the resort enjoyed a score of 90 or higher. In fact at the time, Steamboat's achievements were the highest for any resort of its size in North America.
