Lodging

The wide range of lodging options available around Jackson Hole is as varied as the ski area terrain. Select from standard hotels to high-end resorts. Any setting you choose, at the mountain resort or in town, you are sure to love your stay in Jackson Hole. Kings and Queens of Corbet's

No ski resort in North America has a chute as legendary as Corbet's Couloir. It is a crucible where skiers go to prove their mettle, or more often, to retreat in fear. The run is named for Barry Corbet, a mountaineer who in 1960 spotted a narrow crease of snow shaped like an upside-down funnel, high up on the mountain now known as Jackson Hole. Author Christopher Stenner wrote that Corbet remarked, "Someday someone will ski that."

The 2022 Kings and Queens of Corbet's event is set for Feb. 11- 18, 2022. More details will follow in the Jan-Spring edition of SKIER NEWS.

Intermediate Terrain

Jackson Hole is known for its challenging terrain. But did you know they are also ranked highly by many for terrain variety? Rolling groomers, adventurous kids Stash Parks, and uncrowded long runs are all there also. They have never been complacent at JHMR and in the last few years, they prioritized improving the intermediate ski and snowboard experience to give their guests a large variety of terrain to experience.

Mountain Sports School

This winter, Mountain Sports School is prioritizing health and safety through new offerings with more individualized attention, smaller classes and protocols to provide a safe learning environment.

Jackson Hole Rendezvous Festival

The Jackson Hole Rendezvous is a three-day, spring lifestyle and music festival providing the most iconic backdrops imaginable for the legendary music acts. The events will take place in historic downtown Jackson Town Square and the base of Jackson Hole Mountain Resort from Friday, April 1 to Sunday, April 3, 2022. More info will appear in the Jan-Spring edition of SKIER NEWS.

Events are subject to change or cancellation due to prevailing Covid-19 safety protocols.

Off Mountain Adventure

If you want a wildlife experience, look no further than the north edge of Jackson at the National Elk Refuge where thousands of elk winter in the refuge.

The elk begin their migration out of the high meadows in the fall, usually after the first snowstorm. They stay in the refuge through the spring, when food in their higher habitat becomes more abundant.

The sleigh rides into the elk herd are available via a private contractor, Double H Bar, Inc. The National Elk Refuge also offers educational and daily programs at the Jackson Hole and Greater Yellowstone Visitor Center. Call (307) 733-0277 to book your ride.
