BE AWARE, SKI WITH CARE, KNOW THE CODE

Ski resorts can be enjoyed in many ways. At the areas you may see people using alpine, snowboard, telemark, cross country and other specialized ski equipment, such as that used by disabled or other skiers.

Observe the code listed below and share with other skiers the responsibility for a great skiing experience.

1. Always stay in control.
2. People ahead of you have the right of way.
3. Stop in a safe place for you and others.
4. Whenever starting downhill or merging, look uphill and yield.
5. Use devices to help prevent runaway equipment.
6. Observe signs and warnings, and keep off closed trails.
7. Know how to use the lifts safely.

KNOW THE CODE, IT'S YOUR RESPONSIBILITY.

(This is a partial list, now wash your hands!)

Welcome to SKIER NEWS edition number 123, since 1988. More podcast episodes at: www.AlwaysUpright.com

When you are skiing or snowboarding, it is best to be always upright. That is one of the reasons why SKIER NEWS decided, when we launched our podcasts, to name our newly minted podcast episodes just that. You can find the episodes online at www.AlwaysUpright.com. The series has interviews with ski industry insiders as well as legends in music, entertainment and sports. Many episodes were recorded at the American Century Championship in Lake Tahoe in July by Publisher, Dave Leonardi. SKIER NEWS is working media at the event.

The home page is divided into three landing pages. They are Western Ski News; Eastern Ski News and Sports and Entertainment. Larry the Cable Guy gets it done in his Entertainment based podcast as well as WWE's The Miz, both are funny and informative. John O'Hurley, who played the popular character Jay Peterman of Seinfeld fame, participated as well as female golfing great Anika Sorenstam this year.

In entertainment Jason Scheff former lead singer with Chicago and Jay DeMarcus formerly of Rascal discuss the efforts with their new project Generation Radio.

Our sports episodes kicked-off in 2022 with NHL star, Washington Capitals forward, TJ Oshie. TJ discusses the comparison of eye-hand coordination for both golf and ice hockey. We caught up to TJ once again at The American Century Golf Championship in Lake Tahoe last July. Stanley Cup winner Matthew Tkachuk also joined us for an episode. And retired, American born, formerly of the NHL's Dallas Stars, Joe Pavelski provided interesting views.

MLB's perfect game pitcher David Wells and Cy Young Award winner John Smoltz have separate podcast interviews as well as Jason Werth, Phillies World Series Champion and one of the owners of the 2024 Belmont Stake winner Dornoch.

Baseball great and MLB Ambassador Chase Utley and 2008 Phillies' World Series teammate Shane Victorino have classic Always Upright interviews.

NFLers who have participated include Super Bowl winning QB Joe Theismann, most accurate Field Goal Kicker Robbie Gould, David Carr Super Bowl winner with the NY Giants and Philadelphia Eagles 2017 Super Bowl winning coach Doug Peterson

And, we have to mention that Charles Barkley also contributed an interesting episode! Most of these interviews are about eight minutes or less.

Log on to find in-depth individual interviews with our Skiing Legends series featuring Bode Miller, Dan Egan and Donna Weinbrecht, the first woman to win Olympic Gold in Freestyle Mogul Skiing in 1992.

Many hospitality and ski industry marketers and PR spokespersons are interviewed as well and comprise the majority of the podcasts. More episodes will be added and will continue throughout the ski season.

SKI NEWS, published by The Skier News, Inc., a New Jersey Corporation, distributes two national and two regional editions for this ski season, from November through Spring. These double editions are labeled November-January and January-Spring. Summer and Fall issues are published online at www.skiernews.com. The inaugural issue was published November, 1988. In the ski industry, that was pre-historic eons ago.

SKI NEWS gratefully acknowledges the assistance of all of the fine organizations associated with skiing and we are by concept dedicated to promote skiing. We consider the term "skiing" to be the all-comprehensive, generic term for all downhill snowsports.

Appreciation is hereby, once again, proclaimed to Mark Bunzel, now of Washington state. His original technical and computer suggestions, in 1988, helped make the first edition possible. Now he publishes Fine Edge boating books in the Pacific Northwest.

Thanks again to the pre-press and press room staff of Brad, Vanessa, Scott, Tim, Dan, Jim, Chris, Joe and many, many more.

Unsolicited manuscripts formerly were used as kindling for our office wood stove and now digitally deleted with a loud "woo-hoo."

One more thing, we do not use a period to end a sentence when that sentence ends with a web URL address. Some knuckleheads might think that the period is part of the web address! Not you, of course, but the guy who picked up the copy just before you or maybe the other guy also at the rack, but don't stare. But just in case we forgot to eliminate one, you would know better than to use the period when typing the URL. Thanks. Why are you still reading this fine print?
