The Snake River Brewpub

Jackson's Snake River Brewery was established in 1994 and is going stronger than ever. Since then, the establishment has recently been completely renovated, the beers have won numerous awards, and their menu has many great selections for casual dining. Stop in when you are in Jackson and join the party; you never know what celebratory event will occur.

Relive your Teton adventure with an award winning beer and delicious meal at the Snake River BrewPub. They offer a seat for everyone, from local or visitor, and a chance to live the Jackson life and unwind with friends at the BrewPub known as "Jackson's Living Room."

At the BrewPub, you will find reasonably priced food items from sandwiches to pizzas to pastas and beyond with a kids' menu to match. Their head chef sets a high standard in the kitchen. Nearly everything is handmade. All of the breads and desserts are created in house using only 100 percent organic flour.

The Snake River Brewery and the Brewpub inhabit an old cinder block building that was previously the base of operations for a Coca-Cola distributor. It seemed to be the perfect spot for Wyoming's first brewpub. The owners wanted an open industrial look with lots of light and exposed steel beams. The brewing equipment and wood burning oven would be the artwork. Their major recent remodel adds to this.

The concept was to create a restaurant and brewing space that was open to the customers to draw guests into the process of making beer. They wanted an unpretentious neighborhood watering hole for locals to gather and tourists to taste beer from the Great State of Wyoming. They were determined to create a brewpub building that was architecturally excellent in style and offered excellent food and beer.

The Snake River Brewery is located at 265 S. Millward Street in the town of Jackson, Wyo. It is only a few blocks away from the famous town square and walking distance from downtown Jackson hotels.

This is a must stop for après ski or just to enjoy happy hour. You may just meet a real cowboy or cowgirl in Jackson's Living Room, the Snake River BrewPub.
