

JACKSON EXPANDS GOLDEN TICKET and PRESENTS FREE RENDEZVOUS FESTIVAL FEATURING BOB WEIR

TETON VILLAGE, WY – Jackson Hole Mountain Resort (JHMR) set a January record for snowfall with more than 12 feet by mid-month. The best way to celebrate the continuing snow was to start their upcoming Golden Ticket deal twelve days earlier. You can now get 50 percent off your lift ticket from March 14 to April 12. Simply bring a valid season pass from any other resort and get half off the rate.

It must be a valid season pass of 10 days or more for 2019-20 for skiing or snowboarding from any resort. There are more details on this great offer. Be sure to read them on: www.jacksonhole.com

Plan Ahead to Spring Ahead to Jackson's Rendezvous Festival of Outdoor Concerts and Fun

With fantastic snow, shredding, sunshine and multiple daily choice of events, spring is a lesser-known, double-secret great time to visit Jackson Hole. March's annual Jackson Rendezvous Festival continues in its seventh year a three-day, spring lifestyle and music festival from the streets of downtown Jackson Hole to Teton Village, March 26-28, 2020. Renowned current and classic musical acts will perform at both locations amidst an ongoing spirited series of parties and slope-side programming for soaking up the best of springtime in the Tetons.

Headlining this year's event is the legendary guitarist and founding member of the Grateful Dead, Bob Weir. Weir and his group, the Wolf Bros, will take center stage at JHMR on Saturday, March 28. It is a free show.

JHMR Lodging Offers Rendezvous Package

Starting at $185 per person/per night, this package includes accommodations in a standard two-bedroom, one-bathroom condominium in Teton Village with two-day lift tickets for four adults. This package is valid March 27 to March 30 during the Jackson Hole Rendezvous Festival and is based on quad occupancy, three night minimum. Please call 1-800-443-8613 for details.

Solitude Station in Second Year Further-Expands Beginner Area with New Eagle's Rest Quad Chair

The resort is debunking the myth that "Jackson Hole is not for beginners" with a December 2018 opening of a new lodge, Solitude Station. It is a vast learning complex that is surrounded by beginner terrain. For winter 2019-20, it is further enhanced with the addition of family friendly Eagle's Rest Quad Chairlift. This new lift services JHMR's base area allowing immediate access to Solitude Station's beginner to advanced terrain for a fully rounded learning experience. Experience Solitude and Explore

Solitude Station's central location with immediate proximity to JHMR's base represents a significant upgrade to the mountain and guest experience. Located at the Sweetwater Gondola mid-station, the 12,000-square-foot full service building brings to life a new center of learning and fun in Jackson Hole. Experience a state-of-the-art, one stop shop for lift tickets, lessons and sophisticated, relaxing atmosphere. Discover Solitude Station; the new hub of learning and growing the sport of skiing and riding in Jackson Hole.

Mountain Collective and Ikon Pass

Jackson Hole participates in both Mountain Collective and Ikon Pass products. The Ikon Pass provides access to 41 destinations worldwide. Both Ikon and Mountain Collective pass products set a new standard in season pass access, expanding skier and rider horizons to a vast network of the best neighboring mountains in North America and beyond. The Ikon Pass was developed by Alterra Mountain Company. It unlocks access to a community of diverse destinations for pass holders.

Most Accessible Resort in the Rockies

This winter, fly to Jackson Hole non-stop from 13 major airports. Non-stop routes from Chicago, Dallas, Houston, Newark, JFK, LaGuardia, Atlanta, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Minneapolis, Seattle, Denver and Salt Lake City make Jackson Hole the most accessible Rocky Mountain destination resort. After a recent $30 million renovation to the impressive Jackson Hole Airport, arrival and departure in and out of the Tetons is a total breeze, not to mention efficient and comfortable. JHMR is just a short 30-minute drive from the terminal, making the JHMR experience more accessible than most comparable resorts. Please visit: www.jacksonhole.com/by-air.html

JACKSON HOLE, WY – All smiles in great snow, with more than 11 feet of it in the first 15 days of January. Jackson Hole Mountain Resort has 4,139 vertical feet of awesome terrain spread over 2,500 acres, half of which are beginner and intermediate terrain. Use the Golden Ticket option to save 50 percent from March 14 to April 12, 2020. And be there March 26-28 for their free concert Rendezvous Festival featuring Bob Weir and the Wolf Bros. Kings and Queens of Corbet's

JHMR once again will host the Kings and Queens of Corbet's. The event calls on 25 of the world's top freeride skiers and snowboarders to the famed Corbet's Couloir.

It features airborne head-to-head runs for the title of King and Queen of Corbet's. It will be one of the most anticipated and best spectator events of the season. The event will take place Feb. 10-15, 2020.

The formidable, experts-only, visual and physical centerpiece of the Jackson Hole Mountain Resort is globally recognized as North America's "biggest, baddest, boldest" ski run. It is largely sought after by skiers and riders looking for the ultimate test of their skills. Now in its third year, it is an invite-only pro skier and rider peer judged competition. If you cannot make it to the event, tune in live via Jackson Hole's streams. The social media sporting event reached a royal 59,803,445 impressions last year.
