HEBER VALLEY: MORE THAN JUST a SKI DESTINATION – www.gohebervalley.com

HEBER CITY, UT — When you think of Utah in the winter, grand images of bluebird powder ski days and pristine snow-capped mountains most likely fill your mind. The slogan “Greatest Snow on Earth” rings true in this great state and many plan their winter ski trips to Utah each year to carve through the champagne powder and glide atop perfect corduroy. While known for magnificent powder and renowned ski terrain, the Heber Valley offers so much more in this magical and wintry escape from the mundane.

Heber Valley, Utah, is a winter wonderland for those seeking solace and serenity, as well as outdoor adventure. It is positioned between two excellent ski resorts, Deer Valley Resort and Sundance Mountain Resort, and is located less than an hour from Salt Lake City International Airport. Beyond skiing the stunning slopes of the Wasatch back mountain range, the charming alpine village astounds first-time visitors with its quaint mountain charm and abundance of outdoor recreation, superb dining, and refined spa experiences. With a variety of lodging options from high-end luxury to boutique bed and breakfasts to nationally recognized accommodations, visitors are always greeted with a sincere and warm welcome from the most hospitable staff. However, what truly amazes guests is the unique and one-of-a-kind experiences and memories that await. The Greatest Snow on Earth

Located a mere 10 minutes from the Jordanelle Gondola at Deer Valley Resort and a scenic 25 minutes from Sundance Mountain Resort, Heber Valley is a prime location to access two world-renowned ski resorts and earn the bragging rights of skiing “The Greatest Snow on Earth.” At just over 2,500 acres, Deer Valley Resort is known around the world for perfect corduroy groomers and top-tier customer service. Equally impressive is the distinguished Sundance Mountain Resort with jaw-dropping views of Mount Timpanogos (the second tallest mountain peak in Utah) and the infamous Robert Redford legacy that started the vision for this resort. Guests lodging in Heber Valley have the luxury of skiing both resorts during their multi-day stay.

Ski Among the Olympians

The Soldier Hollow Nordic Center training and event facility welcomes athletes from around the world to train and compete in Olympic qualifying events. The year-round facility was host to the biathlon, cross-country skiing, and Nordic combined events during the 2002 Winter Olympics, and is now open to the public. It offers an exciting opportunity for visitors to participate in activities just like the professional athletes and Olympic hopefuls. During the winter months, Soldier Hollow offers cross-country skiing, snowshoeing, and snow tubing. The 1,200-foot multi-lane snow-tubing hill has a conveyor belt where participants are towed back up the hill for hours of outdoor snow fun. Try tubing at night below the starry sky.

What Are You Waiting For?

There are so many more amazing experiences that await you in Heber Valley. Heber County also boasts Ice Castles in Midway, Utah, swimming in a crater, Après with great food and drinks, or relaxation at one of many spas. It is all here.

Not mentioned are the historic Heber Valley Railroad, Blue Ribbon fly fishing, snowmobiling, coffee shops, chocolatiers, or yurt dining and the diverse lodging options. All of this is amid an impressive mountain backdrop with fast and easy access whether by plane or vehicle. If you have not been to Heber Valley, what are you waiting for?
